COVID-19 Updates

Support for Domestic Violence Survivors in the community continues. Residential Services are operating with new modifications to keep staff and clients. We are following health directions; some staff have been able to work from home. Our Family Violence Prevention Worker is continuing individual appointment through weekly phone conversations.

In response to Covid19, AKG is providing workshops and groups through on-line apps. Please contact Sherry at (905) 352-3898 ext. 3 or 1(800) 388-5171 for more information. We have short Facebook videos to help educate.

Be well and safe!

Family Violence Prevention Worker Update

FVPW has created Covid-19 Care Packages for the clientele of the Shelter. The care packages included self care item, activities for the social distancing, and item for the children. We hope this will help the families to cope with Covid-19. AKG says Miigwetch to the donations to help make this possible.

Child and Youth Counsellor Update

CYC has been actively providing Outreach services throughout the pandemic. Services are being provided remotely to be in keeping with social/physical distancing restrictions rather than on-site at this time.

The Outreach Program has limited space so please call to inquire about setting up an appointment for video-chat or counselling support call with our CYC.

CYC Outreach Services are available to school-aged children up to 18 years of age and can be provided for all genders. CYC can also be contacted to provide parenting tips and suggestions for coping with COVID-19. Or can be booked for an online ZOOM workshop.

The Child and Youth Worker can be reached at 905-352-3898 ext. 4 or alternatively at akgcy@eagle.ca.

Talk4Healing is available 24 hours a day and 7 days week with services in 14 languages.
